Words of Welcome

Poem

Feel No Guilt In Laughter

Feel no guilt in laughter, he'd know how much you care.

Feel no sorrow in a smile that he's not here to share.

You cannot grieve forever; he would not want you to.

He'd hope that you could live your life the way you always do.

So, talk about the good times and the way you showed you cared,

The days you spent together, all the happiness you shared.

Let memories surround you, a word someone may say

Will suddenly recapture a time, an hour, or a day,

That brings him back as clearly as though he were still here,

And fills you with the feeling that he is always near.

For if you keep those moments, you will never be apart

And he will live forever, locked safely within your heart.

Reflection

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be Thy name;
Thy Kingdom come;
Thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For Thine is the Kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever.

Amen.

A person is captured in the middle of a golf swing on a lush green course. They are wearing a red shirt and khaki pants. The background is filled with tall evergreen trees under a bright, slightly hazy sky. The overall scene is peaceful and scenic.
