POEM

from the grandchildren

Grandad, we know you can no longer stay with us, you fought long and hard to be with us.

We know you now watch over and protect us.

Although we cannot hear your voice or see your smiling face, we know deep down in our hearts that you have not left us.
Instead, every day you surround us with the singing of the birds, the rising of the sun and the falling of night.

So many broken hearts are left behind, but in our deepest despair our greatest comfort lies knowing that you are now at peace with the angels and God.

So, as time passes, our tears will dry, our hearts will mend,
but our love for you will never end.

POEM

How Grateful I Would Be to Just Have One More Day
by Kathy J. Parenteau from Lisa

If I could have just one more day and wishes did come true, I'd spend every glorious moment side by side with you.
Recalling all the years we shared and memories we made, how grateful I would be to have just one more day.
Where the tears I've shed are not in vain and only fall in bliss, so many things I'd let you know about the days you've missed.
I wouldn't have to make pretend you never went away, how grateful I would be to
have just one more day.
When that day came to a close and the sun began to set, a million times I'd let you know I never will forget the heart of gold you left behind when you entered Heaven's gate.
How grateful I would be to have just one more day.
