Last Journey
by Timothy Coote

There is a train at the station with a seat reserved just for me
I'm excited about its destination as I've heard it sets you free

The trials and tribulations, the pain and stress we breathe
Don't exist where I am going, only happiness I believe

I hope that you will be there, to wish me on my way
It's not a journey you can join in It's not your time today

There'll be many destinations, some are happy, some are sad
Each one a brief reminder, of the great times that we've had

Many friends I know are waiting, who took an earlier train
To greet and reassure me, that nothing has really changed

We'll take the time together, to catch up on the past
To build a new beginning, one that will always last

One day you'll take your journey, on the train just like me
And I promise that I'll be there, at the station and you will see

That life is just a journey, enriched by those you meet
No-one can take that from you, it's always yours to keep

But now as no seat is vacant, you will have to muddle through Make sure you fulfil your ambitions, as you know I'll be watching you

And if there's an occasion, to mention who you knew
Speak kindly of that person, as one day it will be you

It's time for me to leave on my last journey that sets me free
Please make haste to the reception to enjoy a drink for me!
