Introduction

The Minister welcomes everyone and introduces the service.

We meet in the name of Jesus Christ,
who died and was raised to the glory of God the Father.
Grace and mercy be with you.

We have come here today
to remember before God our brother, Don,
to give thanks for his life;
to commend him to God our merciful redeemer and judge;
to commit his body to be buried;
and to comfort one another in our grief.

God of all consolation,
your Son Jesus Christ was moved to tears
at the grave of Lazarus, his friend.
Look with compassion on your children in their loss;
give to troubled hearts the light of hope and strengthen in us the gift of faith,
in Jesus Christ our Lord.

All: Amen.

Stand.

Hymn

Dear Lord and Father of mankind, forgive our foolish ways!
re-clothe us in our rightful mind,
in purer lives thy service find,
in deeper reverence praise.

In simple trust like theirs who heard,
beside the Syrian sea,
the gracious calling of the Lord,
let us, like them, without a word rise up and follow thee.

O Sabbath rest by Galilee!
O calm of hills above,
where Jesus knelt to share with thee
the silence of eternity,
interpreted by love!

Drop thy still dews of quietness,
till all our strivings cease;
take from our souls the strain and stress,
and let our ordered lives confess
the beauty of thy peace.

Breathe through the heats of our desire thy coolness and thy balm;
let sense be dumb, let flesh retire;
speak through the earthquake, wind, and fire,
O still small voice of calm!

Words: John Greenleaf Whittier (1807-1892)

Tune: Repton (353)

The Liturgy of the Word

Reading

A reading from the Gospel according to John, Chapter 14: verses 1-6
read by Emma Juster, Don's granddaughter

Jesus said to his disciples,

'Do not let your hearts be troubled. Believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house there are many dwelling-places. If it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, so that where I am, there you may be also. And you know the way to the place where I am going.' Thomas said to him, 'Lord, we do not know where you are going. How can we know the way?' Jesus said to him, 'I am the way, and the truth, and the life.

No one comes to the Father except through me.'

This is the word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Psalmody

Psalm 121

sung by the choir

I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills:
from whence cometh my help.
My help cometh even from the Lord:
who hath made heaven and earth.
He will not suffer thy foot to be moved:
and he that keepeth thee will not sleep.
Behold, he that keepeth Israel:
shall neither slumber nor sleep.
The Lord himself is thy keeper:
the Lord is thy defence upon thy right hand.
So that the sun shall not burn thee by day:
neither the moon by night.
The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil:
yea, it is even he that shall keep thy soul.
The Lord shall preserve thy going out, and thy coming in:
from this time forth for evermore.

Glory be to the Father:
and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
as it was in the beginning:
is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Address

The Very Reverend Dr Peter Robinson,
Dean of Derby

Anthem

sung by the choir

The Lord bless you and keep you,
the Lord make his face to shine upon you,
and be gracious unto you.
The Lord lift up the light of his countenance upon you.
and give you peace.

Amen.

Words: Numbers, Chapter 6: verses 24-26

Music: John Rutter (b. 1945)

The Prayers

All sit or kneel.

*The Very Reverend Dr Peter Robinson,
Dean of Derby, leads prayers of intercession.*

The Lord's Prayer

The prayers conclude with The Lord's Prayer:

As our Saviour taught us, so we pray:

All: Our Father,
who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever.
Amen.

Stand.

Hymn

The day thou gavest, Lord, is ended,
the darkness falls at thy behest;
to thee our morning hymns ascended,
thy praise shall sanctify our rest.

We thank thee that thy Church, unsleeping,
while earth rolls onward into light,
though all the world her watch is keeping,
and rests not now by day or night.

As o'er each continent and island
the dawn leads on another day,
the voice of prayer is never silent,
nor dies the strain of praise away.

The sun that bids us rest is waking thy saints beneath the western sky, and hour by hour fresh lips are making thy wondrous doings heard on high.

So be it, Lord; thy throne shall never,
like earth's proud empires, pass away;
thy kingdom stands, and grows for ever,
till all thy creatures own thy sway.

Words: John Ellerton (1826-1893)

Tune: St Clement (252)

Commendation and Farewell

Remain standing.

The Minister stands beside the coffin and says:
Let us commend Don to the mercy of God,
our maker and redeemer.

Silence is kept.

God our creator and redeemer,
by your power Christ conquered death
and entered into glory.
Confident of his victory
and claiming his promises,
we entrust Don to your mercy
in the name of Jesus our Lord, who died and is alive
and reigns with you,
now and for ever.

All: Amen.

Dismissal

Nunc Dimittis

Evening Service in D

George Dyson

sung by the Choir

Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace:
according to thy word.

For mine eyes have seen thy salvation:
which thou hast prepared before the face of all people;
to be a light to lighten the Gentiles:
and to be the glory of thy people Israel.

Glory be to the Father:
and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
as it was in the beginning:
is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Blessing

The Minister gives the blessing.

May God give you
his comfort and his peace,
his light and his joy,
in this world and the next;
and the blessing of God almighty,
the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit,
be among you and remain with you always.

All: Amen.
