WORDS OF WELCOME

A bouquet of yellow roses is positioned on the right side of the page, partially overlapping the text. The roses are in various stages of bloom, with some fully open and others as buds. They are set against a light-colored wooden background. The overall lighting is soft and warm, creating a gentle, nostalgic atmosphere.

POEM

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room;
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little, but not for long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that once we shared;
Miss me, but let me go.

For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the master plan,
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at all the things we used to do;
Miss me, but let me go.

REFLECTION MUSIC

Memory from Cats
by Elaine Paige

A bouquet of yellow roses is shown in the upper right corner of the page. The roses are in various stages of bloom, with some fully open and others as buds. They are set against a background of green leaves and stems. The bouquet is resting on a light-colored wooden surface, which is visible in the lower right corner. The overall lighting is soft and natural, highlighting the texture of the petals and the wood.

POEM

You've Just Walked On Ahead Of Me

You've just walked on ahead of me,
And I've got to understand
You must release the ones you love
And let go of their hand.
I try and cope the best I can,
But I'm missing you so much.
If I could only see you
And once more feel your touch.
Yes, you've just walked on ahead of me;
Don't worry, I'll be fine,
But now and then I swear I feel
Your hand slip into mine.
