INTRODUCTION & OPENING PRAYERS

HYMN

The Lord's my Shepherd, I'll not want;
He makes me down to lie in pastures green; he leadeth me the quiet waters by.

My soul he doth restore again, and me to walk doth make within the paths of righteousness, e'en for his own name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through death's dark vale, yet will I fear none ill;
for thou art with me, and thy rod and staff me comfort still.

My table thou hast furnishèd in presence of my foes;
my head thou dost with oil anoint,
and my cup overflows.

Goodness and mercy all my life
shall surely follow me;
and in God's house for evermore my dwelling-place shall be.

PRAYERS

Concluding with THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever.
Amen.

HYMN

*All things bright and beautiful,
all creatures great and small,
all things wise and wonderful
the Lord God made them all.*

Each little flower that opens,
each little bird that sings,
he made their glowing colours,
he made their tiny wings:
All things bright ...

The purple headed mountain,
the river running by,
the sunset and the morning
that brightens up the sky:
All things bright ...

The cold wind in the winter,
the pleasant summer sun,
the ripe fruits in the garden,
he made them every one:
All things bright ...

He gave us eyes to see them, and lips that we might tell how great is God almighty, who has made all things well:
All things bright ...

All things bright and beautiful,
all creatures great and small,
all things wise and wonderful,
the Lord God made them all.
All things bright ...
