Our Guiding Light

Mum, you were the best person we've ever known.
You were the sun in our sky, our guiding light:
You were our greatest influence and our whole heart.
You taught us all of the ways of life,
And without your love and wisdom,
We would never be half the people we are today.
All of the good things about us, we inherited from you.
Although you are gone, we will love you for the rest of our days,
And we will never stop honouring you
By living out our lives in the best way we can,
And always doing all of the things that would make you proud.
We miss you.
