Poem

A Reunion Of Love

This has been especially adapted for Geoff.

A gentle calm now fills this quiet space,
Where I still see the kindness of your face.
I miss the strength that helped us all to stand,
A love so steady, the finest in the land.
My heart is heavy now you've gone away,
As memories guide me through each passing day.
But in my heart, a gentle thought takes hold,
A story of reunion, brave and bold.
I close my eyes and see the golden light,
Where you are dancing with your soul so bright.
Dear Mum is waiting by the heavenly door,
To take your hand and walk the shining shore.
I'll hear you in the morning breeze,
And see you in the rustling trees.
In every sunrise, gold and new,
I'll find a little piece of you.
No more of the pain, the sorrow, or the fear,
Just endless peace with those you hold so dear.
Together again, two hearts that never part,
You've left the warmth of love within my heart.
So rest now, Dad, in that bright place above,
And whisper to Mum with all your love—
That I will miss you both and hold you tight,
Every single day, and night.
Your love will shine through for eternity.
