OPENING WORDS

POEM

Always With Me

You left no sound, you left no trace,
Yet still I find you, every place;
In morning light and evening air,
My father is always there.

Though hands are still and steps are done,
Your love remains, a setting sun
That leaves a warmth upon the sky,
A steady light that will not die.

A bouquet of several red roses with green leaves, resting on a light-colored wooden surface. The roses are in various stages of bloom, with some fully open and others as buds. The background is a soft, out-of-focus white.

POEM

Dad

He never looked for praises,
He was never one to boast,
He just went on quietly working
For those he loved the most.

His dreams were seldom spoken,
His wants were very few,
And most of the time his worries
Went unspoken too.

He was there... a firm foundation
Through all our storms of life,
A sturdy hand to hold on to
In times of stress and strife.

A true friend we could turn to
When times were good or bad,
One of our greatest blessings,
The man that we called Dad.

POEM
Do Not Stand

Do not stand at my grave and weep.
I am not there; I do not sleep.

I am in a thousand winds that blow,
I am the softly falling snow.
I am the gentle shower of rain,
I am in fields of ripening grain.

I am in the morning hush,
I am in the graceful rush
Of beautiful birds in circling flight.
I am the star-shine of the night.

I am in the flowers that bloom,
I am in a quiet room.
I am in the birds that sing,
I am in each lovely thing.

Do not stand at my grave bereft.
I am not there; I have not left.
