OPENING PRAYER

Reverend Kenneth Bailey

HYMN

Blessed assurance, Jesus is mine:
O what a foretaste of glory divine!
Heir of salvation, purchase of God;
Born of His Spirit, washed in His blood:

*This is my story, this is my song,
Praising my Saviour all the day long.
This is my story, this is my song,
Praising my Saviour all the day long.*

Perfect submission, perfect delight,
Visions of rapture burst on my sight;
Angels descending bring from above
Echoes of mercy, whispers of love:

Perfect submission, all is at rest,
I in my Saviour am happy and blest -
Watching and waiting, looking above,
Filled with His goodness, lost in His love:

Frances Jane Crosby (1820-1915)

HYMN

What a fellowship, what a joy divine,
Leaning on the everlasting arms;
What a blessedness, what a peace is mine,
Leaning on the everlasting arms.

*Leaning, leaning,
Safe and secure from all alarms;
Leaning, leaning,
Leaning on the everlasting arms.*

O how sweet to walk in this pilgrim way,
Leaning on the everlasting arms;
O how bright the path grows from day to day,
Leaning on the everlasting arms.

Refrain

What have I to dread, what have I to fear,
Leaning on the everlasting arms?
I have blessed peace with my Lord so near,
Leaning on the everlasting arms.

Refrain

The United Methodist Hymnal (1989)

IN LOVING MEMORY OF OUR MOTHER, NITA

written by sons

Though we may not be able to be there in person to say goodbye, we send our hearts across the miles today heavy with sorrow but full of gratitude. We want to honour the life and spirit of our mother, Nita, a mighty woman of God, a prayer warrior, and above all a mother whose love never wavered, even when time and distance tried to challenge it.

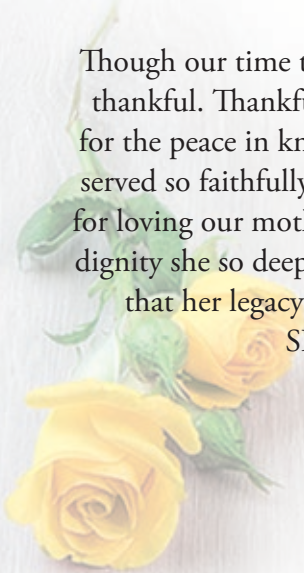

As we grew older, our bond found its way back to solid ground. In those video calls, in the shared laughter, in the gentle words and the prayers she would lift up for us, our mother showed us again and again that love can stretch across any distance. And her love was deep, steadfast, and spirit filled.

Even just a week before her passing we were on a call and true to who she was, she prayed for us. That's who Nita was, a woman anchored in faith, always speaking life and covering her family in prayer. Her strength was but powerful, her words were few, yet they carried wisdom and warmth. And her heart, her heart was always turned toward God and toward her children.

Though our time together in this later stage of life feels far too short, we are thankful. Thankful for the reconnection, for the love we shared. Thankful for the peace in knowing that she is now resting in the arms of the Lord she served so faithfully. To those who gathered to honour her today, thank you for loving our mother, for walking with her, and for sending her off with the dignity she so deeply deserves. We carry her in memory with us and we pray that her legacy of faith, prayer, and perseverance lives on in all of us.

SLEEP WELL, MUM, WE LOVE YOU.

Earl and Elson

TRIBUTE

On Saturday morning, 19th April, I heard the sad news that my dearest Aunty Nita had passed away. I was shocked and heartbroken, she was my only surviving maternal Aunty. We spoke on the phone just a week earlier and I can still hear her voice saying before we hung up, "Love you, love you." Never knew it was "GOODBYE." Life is really a mystery... I love you always and forever, Aunty, rest in eternal peace.
