Service conducted by Mrs Pauline Simpson BEM
Fepow Chaplain

The background of the page is a soft, light-colored gradient, transitioning from a pale yellow at the bottom to a very light blue at the top. Scattered across the upper half of the page are numerous dandelion seeds, some in sharp focus and others blurred, as if they are gently falling from the sky. The seeds are thin, brownish stems with a small, dark seed head at the end.

Order of Service

REFLECTION MUSIC

I Vow To Thee, My Country
a poem by Sir Cecil Spring Rice set to music by Gustav Holst

A background image of dandelion seeds floating in the air, creating a soft, ethereal atmosphere. The seeds are in various stages of dispersal, with some still attached to their stems and others drifting away. The lighting is warm and golden, suggesting a bright, sunny day.

ADDRESS

PRAYERS and THE LORD'S PRAYERS

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be Thy name;
Thy Kingdom come;
Thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For Thine is the Kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever.

Amen.
