POEM

Feel No Guilt In Laughter

Feel no guilt in laughter,
he'd know how much you care.
Feel no sorrow in a smile that he is not here to share.

You cannot grieve forever;
he would not want you to.
He'd hope that you could live your life
the way you always do.

So, talk about the good times and the way you showed you cared,
the days you spent together,
all the happiness you shared.

Let memories surround you,
a word someone may say
will suddenly recapture a time,
an hour or a day,
that brings him back as clearly,
as though he were still here,
and fills you with the feeling that he is always near.

For if you keep those moments,
you will never be apart
and he will live forever locked safely within your heart.

Beyond The Empty Chair

Look beyond the empty chair to know a life well spent, look beyond the solitude
to days of true content.
Cherish in your broken heart
each moment gladly shared, and feel the touch of memory
beyond the empty chair.

POEM

Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me, I want no rites in a gloom-filled room;
why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little, but not for long and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that once we shared;
miss me, but let me go.

For this is a journey we all must take
and each must go alone.
It's all part of the master plan,
a step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart,
go to the friends we know.
Laugh at all the things we used to do;
miss me, but let me go.
