WELCOME AND INTRODUCTION
by Reverend Kate Byrom

A bouquet of yellow roses is shown in the upper right corner of the page. The roses are in various stages of bloom, with some fully open and others as buds. They are set against a background of green leaves and stems. The bouquet is placed on a light-colored wooden surface, which is visible at the bottom right of the image. The overall lighting is soft and natural, highlighting the texture of the petals and the wood.

HYMN

There is a green hill far away,
without a city wall,
where our dear Lord was crucified who died to save us all.

We may not know, we cannot tell what pains he had to bear, but we believe it was for us
he hung and suffered there.

He died that we might be forgiven,
he died to make us good,
that we might go at last to heaven,
saved by his precious blood.

There was no other good enough to pay the price of sin, he only could unlock the gate of heaven and let us in.

O dearly, dearly has he loved!
And we must love him too,
and trust in his redeeming blood,
and try his works to do.

PRAYERS

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done on earth
as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

Lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen.
