Welcome and Prayers

Hymn

I watch the sunrise lighting the sky, casting its shadow near.
And on this morning, bright though it be, I feel those shadows near me.

*But you are always close to me, Following all my ways.
May I be always close to you, Following all your ways, Lord.*

I watch the sunlight shining through the clouds, warming the earth below.
And at the mid-day, life seems to say: "I feel your brightness near me."

*For you are always close to me, Following all my ways.
May I be always close to you, Following all your ways, Lord.*

I watch the sunset fading away, lighting the clouds with sleep.
And as the evening closes its eyes, I feel your presence near me.

*For you are always close to me, Following all my ways.
May I be always close to you, Following all your ways, Lord.*

I watch the moonlight guarding the night, waiting till morning comes.
The air is silent, earth is at rest – only your peace is near me.

*Yes, you are always close to me, Following all my ways.
May I be always close to you, Following all your ways, Lord.*

Reading

Corinthians, Chapter 13: verses 1-13

Love

‘If I speak in the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I am only a resounding gong or a clanging cymbal. If I have the gift of prophecy and can fathom all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have a faith that can move mountains, but have not love, I am nothing. If I give all I possess to the poor and surrender my body to the flames, but have not love, I gain nothing.

Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It is not rude, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres.

Love never fails. But where there are prophecies, they will cease; where there are tongues, they will be stilled; where there is knowledge, it will pass away. For we know in part and we prophesy in part, but when perfection comes, the imperfect disappears. When I was a child, I talked like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became a man, I put childish ways behind me. Now we see but a poor reflection as in a mirror; then we shall see face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I am fully known.

And now these three remain: faith, hope and love.
But the greatest of these is love.’

Homily

Prayers for the Family

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy Kingdom come; thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the Kingdom, the power and the glory,
For ever and ever.
Amen.

Hymn

Lord of all hopefulness, Lord of all joy,
Whose trust, ever child-like, no cares could destroy,
Be there at our waking, and give us, we pray,
Your bliss in our hearts, Lord, at the break of the day.

Lord of all eagerness, Lord of all faith,
Whose strong hands were skilled at the plane and the lathe,
Be there at our labours, and give us, we pray,
Your strength in our hearts, Lord, at the noon of the day.

Lord of all kindness, Lord of all grace,
Your hands swift to welcome, your arms to embrace,
Be there at our homing, and give us, we pray,
Your love in our hearts, Lord, at the eve of the day.

Lord of all gentleness, Lord of all calm,
Whose voice is contentment, whose presence is balm,
Be there at our sleeping, and give us, we pray,
Your peace in our hearts, Lord, at the end of the day.

Reunited

She knew her life was through
But wasn't scared to die;
She closed her pain-filled eyes,
Her final breath a sigh.

Our dad took her hand
And whispered, 'Welcome, dear.
It's been so very long –
We won't be parted here'.
