Words of Welcome

First Reading

read by Chris Fryatt

Poem

A life well lived is a precious gift
Of hope and strength and grace,
From someone who has made our world
A brighter, better place.

It's been filled with moments, sweet and sad,
With smiles and sometimes tears,
With friendships formed and good times shared
And fun and laughter through the years.

A life well lived is a legacy
Of joy and pride and pleasure,
A living, lasting memory
Our grateful hearts will treasure.

Second Reading
read by Andrew Fryatt

Poem

A limb has fallen from the family tree.
I keep hearing a voice that says, “Don’t grieve for me.
Remember the best times, the laughter, the song;
The good life I lived while I was strong.
Continue my heritage, I am counting on you.
Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.
My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest.
Remembering all, how I truly was blessed.
Continue traditions no matter how small.
Go on with your lives, don’t worry about falls.
I will miss you all dearly but it’s time to part,
So keep a small place for me in your heart.”

Reflection

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever.
Amen.
