WELCOME AND OPENING WORDS

POEM
Life Is A Dance

Life is a dance we were all born to do.
The styles to choose from are more than a few!
Some choose simple two-step; some move with flair.
Some slow dance; some break dance, no matter who cares!
Some free style, while others just dance on cue.
Some tango with zest; some shuffle soft-shoe.
Others glide easily, waltzing on through.
Some change their partners; some stay one pair.
Life is a dance.
You start with the styles in your own milieu,
then grow as you add on new moves you view.
You'll stumble, but sometimes dance on sweet air!
Just keep the beat; try new steps if you dare,
for where you end up is all up to you.
Life is a dance!

A bouquet of yellow roses is positioned in the upper right corner of the page. The roses are in various stages of bloom, with some fully open and others as buds. They are set against a background of green leaves and stems. The entire scene is placed on a light-colored wooden surface, with the wood grain visible. The lighting is soft, highlighting the texture of the petals and the natural setting.

COMMITTAL AND FAREWELL

Our Mother Kept A Garden

Our mother kept a garden,
A garden of the heart;
She planted all the good things
That gave our lives their start.

She turned us to the sunshine
And encouraged us to dream,
Fostering and nurturing
The seeds of self-esteem.

And when the winds and rain came,
She protected us enough
But not too much because she knew
We would stand up strong and tough.

Her constant good example
Always taught us right from wrong,
Markers for our pathways
That will last a lifetime long.

We are our mother's garden,
We are her legacy,
And we hope today she feels the love
That's here for all to see.
