WELCOME

POEM

Feel No Guilt In Laughter

Feel no guilt in laughter,
He'd know how much you care.
Feel no sorrow in a smile
That he is not here to share.

You cannot grieve forever;
He would not want you to.
He'd hope that you could live your life
The way you always do.

So talk about the good times
And the way you showed you cared,
The days you spent together,
All the happiness you shared.

Let memories surround you:
A word someone may say
Will suddenly recapture
A time, an hour or a day,

That brings him back as clearly
As though he were still here,
And fills you with the feeling
That he is always near.

For if you keep those moments,
You will never be apart,
And he will live forever,
Locked safely within your heart.

POEM

He Is Gone

by David Harkins

You can shed tears that he is gone,
Or you can smile because he has lived.

You can close your eyes and pray that he will come back,
Or you can open your eyes and see all that he has left.

Your heart can be empty because you can't see him,
Or you can be full of the love that you shared.

You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday,
Or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday.

You can remember him and only that he is gone,
Or you can cherish his memory and let it live on.

You can cry and close your mind,
Be empty and turn your back,

Or you can do what he would want:
Smile, open your eyes, love and go on.
