

To Celebrate the Life of

BERYL WAGSTAFF

6th July 1936 - 3rd May 2025

Mansfield Crematorium, Newstead Chapel

Wednesday 21st May 2025

at 3.00 pm

A serene sunset over a beach. The sun is low on the horizon, casting a warm, golden glow across the sky and the water. The sky is filled with soft, white clouds. The ocean waves are gentle, with white foam washing onto the sandy beach. The overall mood is peaceful and contemplative.

WELCOME AND INTRODUCTION

WORDS OF COMFORT

The background of the page is a soft-focus photograph of a beach at sunset. The sky is a mix of pale pink, lavender, and light blue, with a few wispy clouds. The sun is low on the horizon, casting a warm, golden glow. The beach is composed of light-colored sand, and a series of footprints leads from the foreground towards the right side of the frame. In the distance, there are some trees and a small structure, possibly a pier or a bridge, on the left side.

POEM

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room;
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little, but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared;
Miss me, but let me go.

For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of nature's plan,
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick of heart,
Go to the friends we know,
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds;
Miss me, but let me go.

FINAL THOUGHTS

POEM
Because I Love You So

Time will not dim the face I love,
The voice I heard each day,
The many things you did for me
In your own special way.
All my life I'll miss you,
As the years come and go.
But in my heart I'll keep you,
Because I love you so.
