Poem

Afterglow

by Helen Lowrie Marshall

“I’d like the memory of me to be a happy one.
I’d like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.
I’d like to leave an echo, whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.
I’d like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun,
Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.”

Words of Farewell

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name.
Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the Kingdom, the power and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Welcoming Words

Poem

You Never Said Goodbye
read by Sally

You never said 'I'm leaving',
You never said goodbye.
You were gone before we knew it,
And only God knows why.

A million times we've needed you,
A million times we've cried.
If love alone could have saved you,
You never would have died.

In life, we loved you dearly,
In death, we love you still.
In our hearts, you hold a place
No one else will ever fill.

It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you,
The day God took you home.
