ANNOUNCEMENTS

WORDS OF ENCOURAGEMENT

The Dash

Linda Ellis

read by Simon Peck

I read of a man who stood to speak at the funeral of a friend
He referred to the dates on his tombstone
From beginning to the end

He noted that first came the date of his birth
And spoke of the following date with tears
But he said what mattered most of all
Was the dash between those years

For that dash represents all the time
That he spent alive on earth
And now only those who loved him
Know what that little line is worth

For it matters not how much we own
The cars the house the cash
What matters is how we live and love
And how we spend our dash

So think about this long and hard,
Are there things you would like to change?
For you never know how much time is left
That can still be rearranged

If we could just slow down enough
To consider what is true and real
And always try to understand
The way other people feel

And be less quick to anger
And show appreciation more
And love the people in our lives
Like we have never loved before

If we treat each other with respect
And more often wear a smile,
Remembering that this special dash
Might only last a little while

So when your eulogy is being read
With your life's actions to rehash
Would you be proud of the things they say
About how you spent your dash
