OPENING WORDS

POEM

Dad

He never looked for praises,
He was never one to boast.
He just went on quietly working
For those he loved the most.

His dreams were seldom spoken,
His wants were very few,
And most of the time his worries
Went unspoken too.

He was there ... a firm foundation
Through all our storms of life,
A sturdy hand to hold on to
In times of stress and strife.

A true friend we could turn to
When times were good or bad,
One of our greatest blessings:
The man that we call Dad.

POEM
Remember Me

Don't remember me with sadness,
Don't remember me with tears.
Remember all the laughter
We've shared throughout the years.

Now I am contented
That my life it was worthwhile,
Knowing that as I passed along the way,
I made somebody smile.

When you are walking down the street
And you've got me on your mind,
I'm walking in your footsteps,
Only half a step behind.

So please don't be unhappy
Just because I'm out of sight.
Remember that I'm with you
Each morning, noon and night.
