POEM

The Man That Said Goodbye

written by Courtney

The world feels stiller than before,
a hush that lingers at the door,
as if the sky itself would cry
for the man who's said goodbye.

He held your hand through childhood years,
wiped away your tiny tears,
now stars may whisper through the night
his love, his strength, his guiding light.

Though loss has come and hearts may ache,
the love he gave will never break.

The lives in you - your voice, your smile,
your kindness carried every mile.

So when the days feel hard to bear,
and silence wraps the evening air,
know I am here, with love so wide,
to stand with you, right by your side.

THE COMMITTAL

The background of the page is a faded, grayscale image of a Stobart Logistics truck. The truck is a large semi-trailer truck, viewed from a side-rear perspective. The word "Stobart" is written in large, bold, white letters on the side of the trailer, and "Logistics" is written in smaller white letters below it. The truck is on a road with white lane markings.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be Thy name;
Thy Kingdom come;
Thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For Thine is the Kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever.

Amen.
