Memories of Roy's Life

Poem

The Derbyshire Poem
by Roy Hadfield

Over the hill and over dale,
Through fields so green,
With walls of limestone
That shines so white,
And granite so dark it cannot fail to reach my heart.
Over hill and over dale,
With sun that bursts through heavy clouds,
Into my dale a shaft of light
That strikes a glistening stream
That becomes so crystal clear,
One may see a flash of a trout
As it darts about.

Over hill and over dale,
The sky so blue,
The lark that sings
Over Hatton and moors,
With hills afar in view,
Man have trodden in centuries past,
Who once used the road
Where Romans trod.
Over the hill and over dale,
Where winters grip will never fail,
We stand on a hill,
With no finer view
To see good stiles with you.
In all my life I would not change a single thing.
Over the hill and over dale,
I will walk with you forever and a day.

Only Time
by Enya

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name;
Thy Kingdom come;
Thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the Kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever.
Amen.
