Adieu

written and read for Grandad by Kristie

I've spoken to my Nanny,
Your Bren, your love,
She said that her heart's full again,
Now that you are up above.

You said you would never leave me,
Yet now that isn't true,
You are gone and I'm heartbroken,
But your Bren is over the moon.

She has held her arms wide open,
Waiting just for you,
Her dear, her gorgeous Geoffrey,
Your love forever true.

So now we can raise a drink,
A large glass for the two of you,
Back together once again,
To my lovely grandad; Adieu, adieu, adieu.

POEM

How I Will Remember Grandad
from Maya

Sun lounge,
Comfy chair,
Watching the birds,
Or combing his hair.

Smiling at nanny,
And holding her hand,
Kissing her cheek,
Telling her she looks glam.

Sorting out my tyres,
And talking gossip with me,
Always followed by a delicious cream tea.

Still and silent,
No more pain,
He is now with Bren,
So, from tears we will refrain.

This is how I will remember Grandad.
