Introduction

Reading

Romans 14: 7-12

Reader: The life and death of each of us has its influence on others; if we live, we live for the Lord; and if we die, we die for the Lord, so that alive or dead we belong to the Lord. This explains why Christ both died and came to life, it was so that he might be Lord both of the dead and of the living. This is also why you should never pass judgement on a brother or treat him with contempt, as some of you have done. We shall all have to stand before the judgement seat of God; as scripture says: By my life – it is the Lord who speaks – every knee shall bend before me, and every tongue shall praise God. It is to God, therefore, that each of us must give an account of himself.

Reader: The word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God

Hymn

*All things bright and beautiful,
All creatures great and small,
All things wise and wonderful,
The Lord God made them all.*

Each little flower that opens,
Each little bird that sings,
He made their glowing colours,
He made their tiny wings.
All things bright and beautiful.....

The purple-headed mountain,
The river running by,
The sunset and the morning,
That brightens up the sky;
All things bright and beautiful.....

The cold wind in the winter,
The pleasant summer sun,
The ripe fruits in the garden,
He made them every one;
All things bright and beautiful.....

The tall trees in the greenwood,
The meadows where we play,
The rushes by the water,
We gather every day;
All things bright and beautiful.....

He gave us eyes to see them,
And lips that we might tell
How great is God Almighty,
Who has made all things well.
All things bright and beautiful.....

Gospel
John 14:1-6

Priest: The Lord be with you

Congregation: And with your spirit

Priest: A reading from the Holy Gospel according to John

Congregation: Glory to you O Lord

Priest: “Do not let your hearts be troubled. Believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father’s house there are many dwelling places. If it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, so that where I am, there you may be also.

And you know the way to the place where I am going.” Thomas said to him, “Lord, we do not know where you are going. How can we know the way?” Jesus said to him, “I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.

Priest: The Gospel of the Lord

Congregation: Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

Eulogy

Bidding Prayer

Priest: Let us pray with faith and confidence to God our Father, who raised his Son, Jesus Christ, from death, that he may give comfort to the living and eternal rest to the dead.

Reader: We pray for our beloved Margaret Patricia, who received the grace of baptism, reap its full fruits as she enjoys the vision of God in the happiness of eternal life. (Pause) Lord in your mercy.

All: Hear Our Prayer

Reader: We pray for the forgiveness of sins. As we remember with love and affection the life of our departed sister Margaret, may she always be in our prayers as we ask God's mercy to forgive her sins. (Pause) Lord in your mercy.

All: Hear Our Prayer

Reader: We pray for those who are left to mourn their loss, especially we pray for the family of Margaret. May they be thinking today not of the darkness of death but of the brightness of the Resurrection. (Pause) Lord in your mercy.

All: Hear Our Prayer

Reader: We pray with Mary, our mother as we pray: Hail Mary ...
(congregation joins)

Priest: Heavenly Father, you are the lover of life in whom there is no darkness or death, we make our prayers, confident that you will hear and answer them. We make our prayers, through Christ our Lord. Amen
