WORDS OF WELCOME

POEM

Gone Riding
By David Ritter

Don't cry for me, I still ride free,
With the wind upon my face,
Leather in black, the sun on my back,
A priceless gift of God's grace.

I'll never grow old, on these streets of gold,
Chasing a majestic sunset,
And I still recall, how I love you all,
Sweet memories I won't forget.

And when your road ends, we'll meet again,
Inside the Pearly Gates,
And we'll laugh awhile and go ride for miles,
But for now, Heaven can wait.

When you do get here, don't shed one tear,
And think that I'm in hiding,
Just search Heaven's shore, where engines roar,
And you'll find that I've gone riding.

REFLECTION

COMMITTAL

A BIKER'S BLESSING

May your final ride be easy, and the road stretch far and wide,
May each bend feel like a gentle curve, 'til the horizon meets the sky.
May the rush of the wind whisper in your ear, and the sun glint in your eye,
May you ride along this road with grace, as the sun sets and falls from the sky.

May each mile be a memory for us to share and remain etched in our hearts;
May that last destination soon seem near, as you journey through uncharted paths.
So may your final ride be easy, and your spirit not be deterred:
May your bike bring you safely home, as its roar gently ebbs to a purr.
