Abide With Me

Cantemus Spalding

Abide with me; fast falls the eventide;
The darkness deepens; Lord, with me abide;
When other helpers fail and comforts flee,
Help of the helpless, Oh, abide with me.

Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day;
Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away;
Change and decay in all around I see;
O Thou who changest not, abide with me.

I need Thy presence every passing hour;
What but Thy grace can foil the tempter's pow'r?
Who, like Thyself, my guide and stay can be?
Through cloud and sunshine, O abide with me.

I fear no foe, with Thee at hand to bless;
Ills have no weight, and tears no bitterness;
Where is death's sting? Where, grave, thy victory?
I triumph still, if Thou abide with me.

Hold Thou Thy cross before my closing eyes;
Shine through the gloom and point me to the skies:
Heav'n's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows flee;
In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me.

Poem

H17 is where the wave of sound breaks
and the whole stage gathers itself into a single perfect frame.

At the back, it's dark and comfortable.
No one will notice you there.

At the front, you're in the action –
trading the shape for the detail.

On the aisle, you can be ready for a quick escape before the bows,
knowing that the show is going to finish
without you there to see it through to the end.

So, when H17 is available
and the cost is not too great, take it.
Enjoy the world made whole, just for a moment,
content in the knowledge that the best views are only offered once.
