Love Is All Around
Wet Wet Wet

Poem

Woven
by Becky Hemsley

You're sewn into my habits
Like the way I make my tea.
You're stitched within my waking hours
And threaded through my dreams.

The fibres of you run through
Words and phrases that I say,
And all my memories of you
Embroider every day.

The jokes you told embellish days
That otherwise are bare,
And all your little quirks make up
My life of patchwork squares.

It's you that knitted colour,
That tied knots and bonds so strong
That your beauty and your essence
Still remain now you are gone.

See, we are like a tapestry
All stitched and woven tight,
And I know you're always with me
In the fabric of my life.

So, when I start to feel things
Tangled up inside my heart,
I stop and realise love
Is an enduring work of art.
