A wide-angle photograph of a cricket match in progress. The scene is set in a large stadium with a prominent Gothic cathedral in the background. The cathedral has four tall, slender spires. The stadium seating is filled with spectators, and the pitch is green with a brown center. A bowler in white is captured mid-throw, while a batsman stands ready. A fielder is also visible in the distance. The sky is bright and clear. The text 'ORDER OF SERVICE' is overlaid in the center of the image.

IRISH BLESSING

read by Paul Cremin, nephew

May the road rise to meet you.

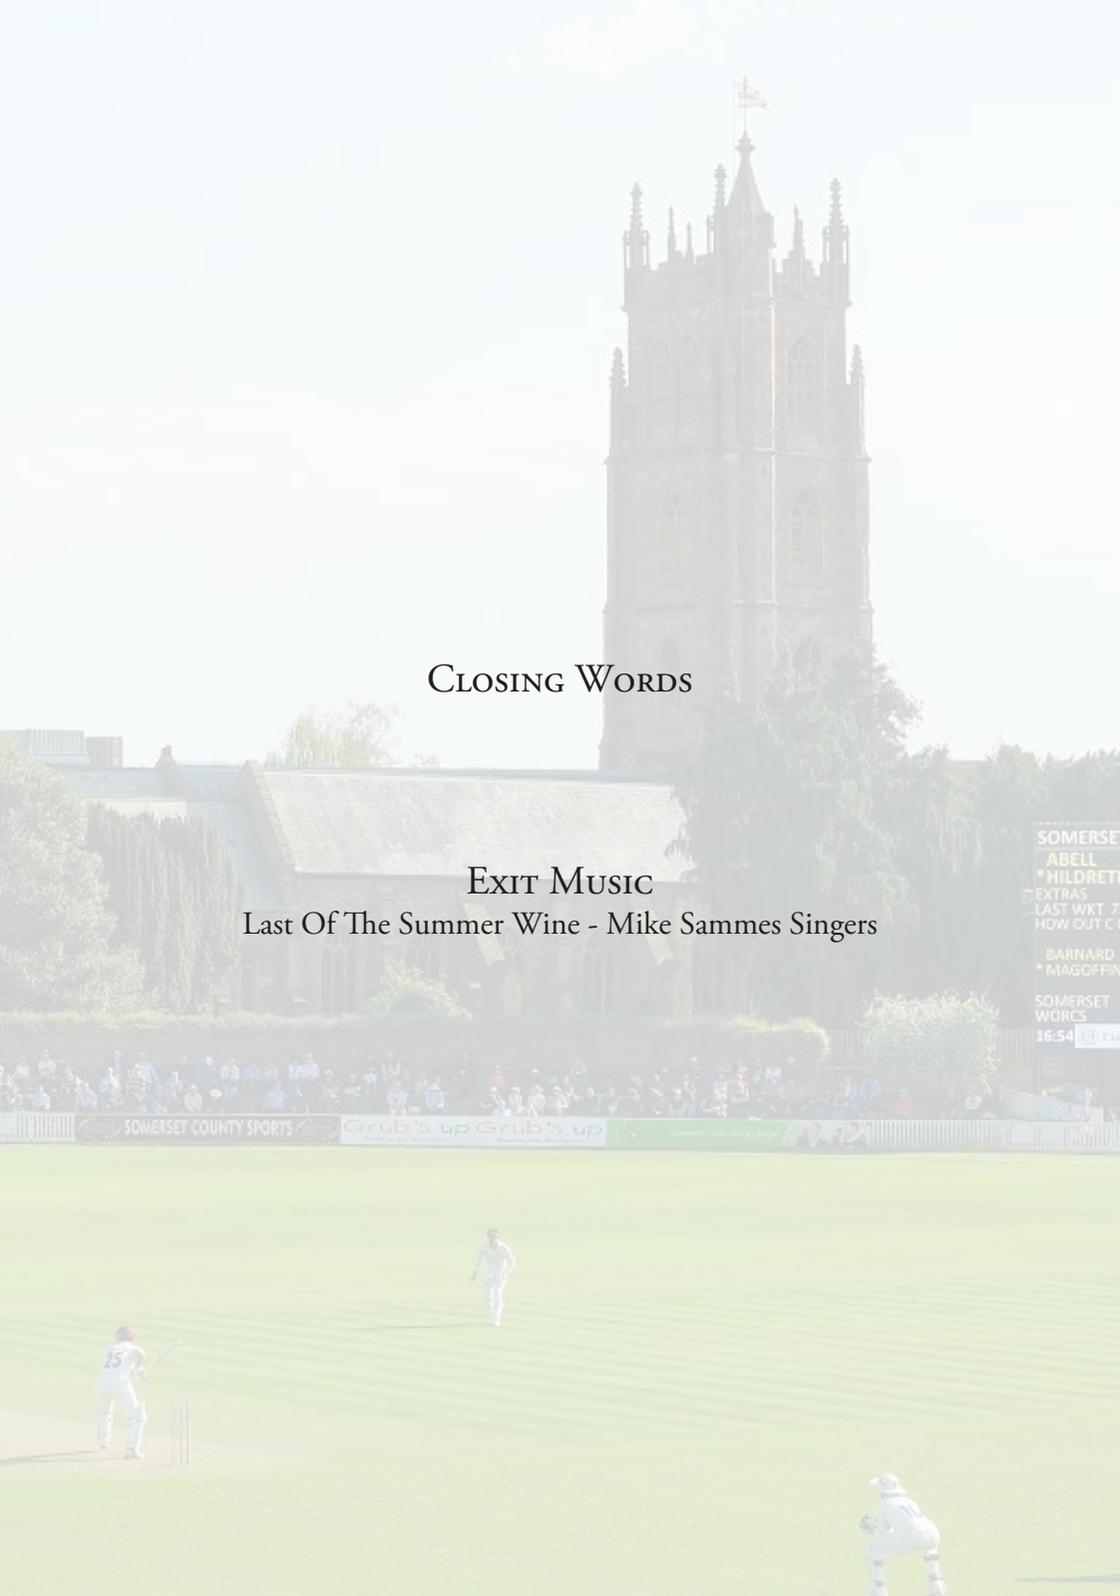

May the wind be always at your back.

May the sun shine warm upon your face.

May the rain fall softly upon your fields until we meet again,

And may God hold you

In the hollow of his hand.
