WORDS OF WELCOME

POEM

In Loving Memory of Bob
A Kind And Gentle Soul

Beneath the earth he once toiled deep,
Where shadows rest and echoes sleep.

A miner's heart, both strong and true,
He gave his all in all he knew.

Kind of soul and gentle hand,
He built his life on love's own land.

With laughter shared and stories told,
His spirit warm, his heart pure gold.

He walked the fairways, calm and free,
Each swing a prayer, each breath the sea.

Among his friends, in sun's embrace,
He found his joy, his sacred place.

Now Heaven's greens hold light and peace,
His labour done, his soul's release.

Though gone from sight, he's never far -
Our guiding light, our brightest star.

Forever loved, forever near,
His voice still whispers, soft and clear.

In every dawn, in every song,
His gentle spirit carries on.
