Poem

The Last Race
by Barbara Ogilvie

I liked a little gamble,
A bet I loved to place,
A rush of the adrenaline,
I loved to watch the race.

I studied all the form,
Running heavy on the course,
Sometimes picking colours
An eye on my favourite horse.

For me it wasn't gambling,
It was a treasured way of life,
It took my mind so far away
From trouble and from strife.

So now it's time for resting,
I've passed the winners line,
Think of me, a winning ticket,
And how I lived this life of mine.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever.

Amen.

Poem

Look For Me In Rainbows

by Vicki Brown

Time for me to go now, I won't say goodbye;
Look for me in rainbows, way up in the sky.
In the morning sunrise when all the world is new,
Just look for me and love me, as you know I loved you.

Time for me to leave you, I won't say goodbye;
Look for me in rainbows, high up in the sky.
In the evening sunset, when all the world is through,
Just look for me and love me, and I'll be close to you.

It won't be forever, the day will come and then
My loving arms will hold you, when we meet again.
Time for us to part now, we won't say goodbye;
Look for me in rainbows, shining in the sky.

Every waking moment, and all your whole life through,
Just look for me and love me, as you know I loved you.

Just wish me to be near you,
And I'll be there with you.
