Memories of Craig's Life

Poem

Feel No Guilt In laughter

Feel no guilt in laughter, he knows how much you care,
Feel no sorrow in a smile that he's not there to share.
You cannot grieve forever, he wouldn't want you to,
He'd hope that you would carry on, the way you always do.
So talk about the good times, and the way you showed you cared,
The days you spent together, all the happiness you shared.
Let memories surround you, a word someone may say
Will suddenly recapture a time, an hour, a day,
That brings him back as clearly as though he still were here,
And fills you with the feeling that he is always near.
For if you keep those moments, you will never be apart,
And he will live forever, locked safe within your heart.

Poem

Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room;
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little, but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared;
Miss me, but let me go.

For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick of heart,
Go to the friends we know,
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds;
Miss me, but let me go.
