WELCOME AND INTRODUCTION

POEM

I Missed You Today
Donna Ashworth

I missed you today, but that's nothing new,
I missed you a million times yesterday too.
I picked up my phone to tell you the news,
Then realised, again, I can't text it to you.

I saw your bright smile, at least twenty times,
And then I remember, it's all in my mind.
I drive without presence, the world feels surreal,
And on comes your song, and this doesn't seem real.

I missed you today but I miss you a lot,
It's helpful to miss you, it's all that I've got.
I wish I could pull you down here for a while;
I'm frightened to lose the shape of your smile.

I miss you today and I'll miss you tomorrow,
There seems to be no coming end to this sorrow.
I try to go on as I know that you care,
I know that you're willing me on from up there.

I miss you today but I'm trying to find,
A way to move on but not leave you behind.
A way to forge on with the love that we had,
A way to recall you and simply feel... glad.
