WELCOME AND OPENING PRAYERS

POEM

Don't Remember Me With Sadness

Don't remember me with sadness,
Don't remember me with tears,
Remember all the laughter
We've shared throughout the years.

Now I am contented,
That my life it was worthwhile,
Knowing that as I passed along the way,
I made somebody smile.

When you are walking down the street
And you've got me on your mind,
I'm walking in your footsteps,
Only half a step behind.

So please don't be unhappy
Just because I'm out of sight,
Remember that I'm with you,
Each morning, noon and night.

SCRIPTURE READING

Matthew, Chapter 11: verses 25-30

At that time Jesus said, “I praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and learned, and revealed them to little children. Yes, Father, for this is what you were pleased to do.

“All things have been committed to me by my Father. No one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal him.

“Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy and my burden is light.”
